

Phillies Cop Clincher 6-3; Yanks Win

Hammer Helps Lead Attack On Dodgers

Brooklyn—(AP)—Dutch Leonard, Philadelphia's veteran knuckleball hurler, held the Dodgers to nine scattered hits to pitch the Phils to a 6-3 victory over the Dodgers yesterday. Leonard's second win of the season with a home run and the Philly key-stone combination of Emil Verban and Granville Hamner banged out six of the team's 14 hits.

The Phillies unloosed a four-run inning against Ralph Branca in the fourth inning to hand the right-hander his second defeat of the young season and enabled the Phillies to win the series, two games to one.

Harry Walker got a double and single and made two brilliant catches for the Phillies.

Giants Topple Braves Twice, 6-0, 6-2; Macks, Senators Split Doubleheader

Jones Hurls 2-Hit Win

Boston—(AP)—Newcomer Shalton Jones pitched a two hit 6-0 triumph for the Giants yesterday as the New Yorkers took both ends of a double header from the Braves.

A paid audience of 35,954 also saw the Tribe beaten 6-2 in 10 innings in the opener.

The Giants rode to triumph in the first game on Walker Cooper's 10th inning home run which drove in three mates ahead of him.

After a rocky start in the nightcap in which he walked the first two batters and hit another, Jones retired the next 11 Bostonians in succession before issuing one of four bases on balls.

First hit off Jones was a high-bouncer over the mound by Ed Stanky in the fifth and the only one through the middle by Phil Masi in the seventh.

Buddy Kerr played his first game of the season. He had been under suspension by Manager Mel Ott for failing to play after doctors declared he had recovered from a head injury suffered in a pre-season exhibition.

A's Annex Opener 4-0

Philadelphia—(AP)—The Athletics split a doubleheader with the Senators yesterday, winning the opener 4-0 behind the six-hit pitching of Carl Scheib but dropping the nightcap 7-3 when the Nats broke out in a rash of base hits for five runs in the seventh inning. A crowd of 24,000 jammed Shibe Park.

Homers by Eddie Joost and Hank Majeski accounted for all of the A's runs in the second game. Majeski hit his four-bagger with one man on.

The Senators were behind 3-2 when they struck hard at the offense of left-hander Lou Brasse. Before the seventh inning was over the Nats had lashed out over three triples and a single.

The A's made nine hits off Sid Hudson in the opener, and four of these came in the second inning, accounting for all of Philadelphia's four runs.
